

September 2009

Reflection

Nathan Meadows
American Public University System

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.apus.edu/theapuseagle>

Part of the Poetry Commons

Recommended Citation

Meadows, Nathan (2009) "Reflection," The APUS Eagle: Vol. 2: Iss. 1, Article 5.
Available at: <http://digitalcommons.apus.edu/theapuseagle/vol2/iss1/5>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the ePress Journals at DigitalCommons@APUS. It has been accepted for inclusion in The APUS Eagle by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@APUS. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@apus.edu.

Reflection

By Nathan Meadows

When the present consumes you
When the past consumes you
Who do you turn to
Where do you go
Reflecting and contemplating
When the present consumes you
When the past consumes you
Who do you turn to
Where do you go

About Nathan Meadows:

Nathan is 25, a USAF disabled Vet - F-15 Weapons Systems Trainer (served 2002 - 2006)

HR Major (graduate May 16th 2009), President of Tau Pi Alpha. He enjoys reading, golfing and politics.

